Make notes out of the following passage :

Discipline is a very important part of life. It implies an orderly manner of living and conducting oneself. It is essential in every sphere of life, whether it is at home or in work. Life will be a burden and the world a hell if everyone is allowed to behave as one likes. It teaches us self-control. Discipline is the most vital matter. Human efforts can bear fruit only when these are carried on in a discipline manner. Discipline means complete obedience to some order or rules. But it should not be taken to mean the curtailment of liberty. It implies the exercise of liberty in a proper way. Man needs discipline to attain success in every field of life—in his study, on his playground, in his office and in his home. The lack of discipline has always disastrous results. Man loses his rationality without discipline. He comes lawless and savage. He becomes a bad judge and rash master.

7. Read the following passage and makes notes:-

Man is architect of his own fate. If he makes a proper division of his time and does his duties accordingly, he is sure to improve and prosper in life, but if he does otherwise, he is sure to repent when it is too late and he will have to drag a miserable existence from day to day life. To kill time is culpable as to commit suicide, for our life is nothing but the sum total of hours, days and years. Youth is the speed time of life. In youth mind is pliable and soft. It can be moulded in any form we like. If we lose the morning hours of life we shall have to repent afterwards.
